The central graphic is a white box with a blue border. Inside, the text 'Every minute counts.' is at the top in blue. Below it is a logo consisting of a blue house shape above an open book. The text 'ONE FOR THE BOOKS' is written inside the house shape. At the bottom of the box, the text 'Greater Springfield Habitat for Humanity READ-A-THON' is displayed, with 'Habitat for Humanity' in a larger font. Below that is the website URL 'habitatspringfield.org/one-for-the-books'.

Right now, there's a severe deficit of affordable housing in Massachusetts. It's estimated we need 200,000 new homes within the next decade. At least 60,000 of these residences must be affordable to families earning less than 80% of the area median income. By participating in the read-a-thon, your donations can help pay for build site supplies.
